Customer Reviews

If you're looking for a fish id book, don't waste your time. This is just a quick overview of a few fish species. You could fit most of the info on a placemat.

A good basic read. Provides a good introduction but those wanting details and a more comprehensive coverage will be disappointed. Well written in an easy reading style.

It is easy to locate fish in this book even for a novice. There is a check list to keep track of you finds. He also explains anomalies in colors within a species. Part of our permanent boat library, even bought hard copu
