Customer Reviews

This book is so easy to read and engaging, but at the same time incredibly deep and informative. It does a great job of summarizing really important details and the layout of the book is also really useful-- it's useful if you enjoy reading from cover to cover or you want to skip between chapters based on what you're interested in learning about first.

Easy to read, and gave me exactly what I wanted. It made me think about why we do things and made me be more aware in my doings.. Seeing all examples of deeds of people who are amongst best of us was very inspiring...

This book is one of the best religious book that any believer who is seeking the real meaning of worship should read

In an age of hustle bustle and distractions, this book really helps one to refocus on what really matters and give your prayer the right it deserves.

Easy to read and quite inspirational. There are many interesting anecdotes from the early Islamic diaspora, you won't be disappointed.

I'm not exaggerating but this book changed my life. I have honestly spent days pondering what I've read in this book, and I still do. Anyone who prays should read this. I don't think I prayed with as good a mindset before reading this. Don't let the title of "inner dimensions" drive you away thinking this is about some typical overly wanting to be mystical type reading. Ghazali starts off explaining the importance of what he calls the "outer dimensions" and then goes on in depth about the inner dimensions of worship.

Great book , I highly recommend it!

This book helps to find certainly as what is khushu in prayer.
