Customer Reviews

I have about 40 of these play along books, and most all of them are superb. My playing has improved TREMENDUSLY since begininning using them. What I do mostly that works for me, and is most fun for me, is to learn the intro and a few key verses of a song, and then simply improvise the rest, which helps me practice my pentatonic scales and such. So I rarely ever learn an entire song note for note, but to jam along to a familar song and put my own spin on it is really rewarding. This book has many of AC/DC's well known songs, and the backing tracks are AWESOME! I learned "Dirty Deeds" and it's fairly 'easy' to learn the hook, then jam out the rest. The tone I can match perfectly with my Mustang III amplifier. Anyway, these guitar play along books are a lot of fun, and really help you become better.

So easy to follow and it came with the CD

Downloaded onto device. Sound of play along didn't work.

My little brother loved this book. It was his favorite gift he received for Christmas along with his new guitar!

Excellent Play-Along series. Having tons of fun with these song books. Thanks

Very cool to be jamming with the boys. I like that there are backing tracks and that you can slow things down.

two thumbs up

All I can say, great book fun to jam along with.
