Caitlyn E. Moore began traveling with her parents as an infant and has already visited five continents. She has also participated in three Study Abroad trips to Australia/New Zealand, Japan, and Costa Rica. Her love of traveling and learning about new cultures inspired her to begin writing the Savvy Traveler's™ series. Caitlyn took gymnastics classes beginning at age three, and ended up on the Show Team. She began ballet lessons at age five and danced in the academy's™ annual shows through her senior year in high school. She enjoys writing, photography, music, and cooking in addition to traveling. Ms. Moore graduated from Western Washington University, magna cum laude, where she earned her degree in English with an emphasis in editing and creative writing, and a minor in Spanish language studies. She is currently living in the greater Seattle, Washington area.

There isn't nearly enough substance here to be called a guide. A very simple intro of the cities listed. Pay extra for a Lonely Planet instead.
