Customer Reviews

Everything Katie Parla does is fabulous. She knows Rome like the back of her hand. I can't wait for my next trip to Italy to try some more of these restaurants. We lived in Roma for slightly less than 3 years and met Katie in 1999. We have our favorite restaurants of course, but one can always enjoy more spots. It's so rare to have a bad meal in Italy, although sometimes the service is lacking. However, why not go to the recommended spots? Put this on your smart phone and eat like royalty!

This e-book (and Katie's app) will both be my travel companion for my upcoming trip to Rome. I've been a follower of her blog and have read many of her articles in food magazines as well as the New York Times -- she clearly isn't some flash in the pan blogger/instagramer. The recommendations seem well vetted and thought out and are written in the tone of a friend giving you solid suggestions. For the price and not having to carry a heavy book around (looking like a tourist) or hoping for wifi while traveling, do yourself a favor and buy this ebook.

I liked the glossary of Italian culinary terms. The book seems to be a bit on the self promoting side, especially the authors private tour business. Would have liked a broader range of restaurant choices. Seemed like each place all served the same things.

Can't wait to go!

We spent 3 weeks in Rome and swear by this book as well as her blog and app. Some of the best dining we have had. She definitely knows what she is talking about. Incredibly accessible and helpful - would highly recommend for anyone planning a trip to Rome.

I've recommended Katie's recommendations and expertise to my cousin and her mom when they visited and then to a good friend. They all came back with many many thank you's, both to me and Katie!

Ate like a king with this guide in Rome. Great range of options and helpful descriptions of history and customs of local cuisine. Highly recommend for anyone traveling to Rome who loves food.

Katie knows her stuff. She's done all the legwork. Give yourself over to her excellent recommendations, and you'll have a memorable culinary experience in la bella Roma!
