Picasso And The Girl With A Ponytail (Anholt's Artists Books For Children)

Synopsis

Sylvette is a shy little girl, but her neighbor happens to be the artist Pablo Picasso. Attracted by Sylvette's classical facial profile and her lovely ponytail hair style, Picasso convinces her to overcome her shyness and pose for a series of artworks. These drawings, paintings, and sculptures soon become world famous, and encouraged to abandon her shyness, Sylvette herself begins a career as a fine artist. This is a title in Barron's Anholt's Artists Books for Children series, in which author and illustrator Laurence Anholt recalls memorable and sometimes amusing moments when the lives of the artists were touched by children. Anholt's fine illustrations appear on every page and include reproductions of works by the artists.

Laurence Anholt is the author and illustrator of several children's books about famous artists, all available in North America from Barron's. They include Degas and the Little Dancer, Leonardo and the Flying Boy, The Magical Garden of Claude Monet, and van Gogh and the Sunflowers.

Great book for introducing children to classic artists.

Love it! Every art teacher and elementary teacher should own it!

I have an 8 year old daughter that is very artsy and crafty. It's a great way to share history and styles of artists with her in a fun way. Have been for several years.

Again, was for granddaughter and wanted to expose her to different artists. This book was added to her collection of other artists.

My third graders really liked this book.

Fabulous series.

Cute and fun for little artists!

Such a cute story and educational. I read it to middle school students in my summer art class. They got a kick out of it. I will keep it forever to read to my own children one day!
