Virginia Civil War Traveler Day Trip U.S. Route 1, Fredericksburg To Richmond (Civil War Traveler Day Trips)

Synopsis

Take a day trip through the heart of Civil War Virginia with this 10-stop tour from the killing fields at Fredericksburg to the defenses of the Confederate capital in Richmond. The driving tour follows in soldiers' footsteps along the old Telegraph Road, now US Route 1. The book includes both embedded maps and links to specially created Google maps and is enhanced with historic and modern images. Some highlights: * The Sunken Road at Marye's Heights defended by Confederates during the Battle of Fredericksburg in December 1862. * The historic Massaponax Church, where photographs of a famous Union council of war were made. * The place where Stonewall Jackson died following the Battle of Chancellorsville in May 1863. * The spot where Confederate Gen. J.E.B. Stuart was mortally wounded in May 1864.

Customer Reviews

Great planner and map for day trips with grandson studying Virginia history. Day trips ave him a real experience for the history being studied

Very good hip pocket reference.

Very informative. Great replacement for maps that you buy at convenient stores, etc. It will be used when the weather warms up. My camera will be click'en.
