Customer Reviews

Just a thought, responding to "skip it". Of course it's presented slowly, nobody can possibly learn a foreign language at the rate it's spoken by native speakers. I wouldn't expect the Spanish-speaking guys on my jobsite to pick up English the way I normally speak. We both slow down for each other, knowing we need time to process the phrases in our heads. Looking forward to getting this CD for our superintendents. I'm tired of translating for them!

There is a need for such a "tool". No Latin person speaks as slowly as this CD presents the words.

The idea is good, but it needs much improvement before it can be really useful for a person in the construction industry.

This is a wonderful tool. One of the best tools in my toolbox. It is helpful not only with hired help, but with new customers too. Thanks! K. Gilbert, K and M Construction
