Tony Souder is the Executive Director of the Chattanooga Youth Network, a ministry dedicated to helping the Church flourish in bringing the greatness of God to the next generation. For nearly two decades he has served the Chattanooga and north Georgia regions by connecting, coaching, and caring for youth ministry leaders across denominational and racial lines. Tony and his wife Rhonda live in Chattanooga, Tennessee with their twin daughters. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

One of our biggest challenges in America is the departure of our youth from a strong relationship with God and the church. This book provides guidance on how to pray for our youth that are approaching the critical years of middle school, high school and preparation for college. This book gives scriptural structure to specific areas of Godly character and how we can pray for them, either in a structured program (Pray for Me campaign), or as a general guide.

Great for the church

Good prayer guidance to help you pray for someone you love, particularly a young person. Heavily based on Scripture.

Great prayers to grow in praying for our students.

This is an absolutely great book and great program. We have implemented with our HS Seniors and all of our College Age kids. Have over 60 adults in our church praying for more than 20 kids (3 on each kid) with our oldest adult being 99! God is Great!
