Customer Reviews

As is typical of "Blue Guide" travel publications, this is a very thorough book with good coverage of what to see, and a fair amount of in-depth background on the significance of what you are seeing. I bought it for that background, despite the ten-year old publication date. I think it is worthwhile for anyone contemplating a trip to Tunisia, but be aware that there are some things in the book which simply aren't accurate anymore. So supplement it with at least one other guide published in the last year or so. A trip to Tunisia is such a large expense that scrimping on travel guides that can enhance your visit for 1% or less of the cost of your trip is a penny-wise and pound-foolish approach!
