A West Cork Life 2002-2003

Synopsis

"A West Cork Life" is a collection of writings by Tina Pisco, an "urban nomad" living in an Irish "isolated rural pocket", where directions always begin with "If I were you, I wouldn't start from here", where flying cows are more of an immediate danger than getting mugged, and where "The Law of Residual Dirt" thrives amongst the mice and spiders of an old Rectory built in 1848.
