The Wedding Party

Synopsis

Enjoy again the humor and warmth of this fan-favorite novel by #1 New York Times bestselling author Robyn Carr. Charlene Dugan has been happily divorced for twenty-five years. But now she's decided to tie the knot again, and almost immediately her life begins unraveling. Her daughter Stephanie's own relationship is disintegrating, and she might be just a teeny bit jealous of her mom. Somehow Charlene seems to be spending more time with her ex-husband than with her new fiancé. The wedding party has officially spun out of control — they're calling for rain and the bride has cold feet. This isn't exactly what Charlene had in mind. But maybe it's not too late to finally decide on who and what she really wants. Originally published in 2001 "A delightfully funny novel." —Midwest Book Reviews

Customer Reviews

This is a great story about life, love , family and choices. Very real. Love books by thus author. !eep them coming.

Yes I enjoyed reading it.

true Robyn Carr book great pace and a wonderfull book

It's a good read although it felt slightly drawn out at times

Loved it, but I haven't read anything of hers I haven't liked.

I always enjoy Robyn Carr books this is a great feel good book

Had you waiting for the next turn in the story. Nice story.

I have never gotten a hold of a bad Robyn Carr. This one is insightful and hilarious at the same time. Love the reality of life.
