Softcover, tight binding, pages good. Has shelf wear.

This is academic prose, but invaluable boots-on-the-ground insight describing weather, walking distance between major monuments, selected highlights relevant to the history and context of the park. Even mix of color and black and white photos. The major plus for this book, if you're lucky, is the TOPO MAP!!! I laminated my cover to keep the binding strong, but the topo map is sturdy and priceless. This book and map will make you a stud on site. Guatemala here I come :)
