BITTER BABY DADDY: WHEN A LOSER CAN'T LET GO

Synopsis

Motherhood... The happiest event in a female's life when she finally crosses that threshold between childhood and becoming an adult. But what happens when you don't really know that person you're having a child with? What if over time you watch that man you gave a part of yourself to morph into someone you don't recognize? That's the case in this book of twisted tales involving four different men with four very similar issues. Over time, each woman in this book watches as the man they gave their all too changes into abusive, obsessive, womanizing, controlling fuck boys. Sex, lies, abuse, jealousy, and even murder are the reoccurring themes in their lives and one by one they find themselves trapped between wanting to live a happy life and desperately trying to separate from their Bitter Baby Daddies. Will these women be able to break the volatile bonds that hold them? Or will these women succumb to the hell they live as the losers who control them refuse to let go? Come on this drama filled, explosive ride through the streets of Memphis and find out just what it takes to get rid of a Bitter Baby Daddy!

Customer Reviews

I loved it touched base on things a lot of women go through and can't seem to find a way out. I like how they used there brain to recognize the real from the fake. They didn't give up on love even though they had bad circumstances.

I love how all the stories tie in together. I really am glad Ahmad is gone though. I hated him

This book is everything.. Read this book in 1 day.. Yasss I love it.. I need part 2 of this book

All they do is cry,if they look at themselves in the mirror they crying the men crying as much as the women I cried about this,I cried about that too weak

Really good read. Didn't want it to end. I wanted more in the ending. Such a good book.

Ok, jumping right in. Not sure if this warrants a sequel simply because all of the stories were wrapped up very nicely. And to me, in the first two stories the mothers were more bitter than the men otherwise they would not have continued to lead them on or push them to the extremes they were led to. Abdul certainly got his just desserts and I applaud Remi for withstanding as long as she did because I would have snapped the moment he cut my hair! KMari, I totally feel for him. Not only did she screw her baby daddy in the home he provided for her, she was callous and disrespectful. If you're happy with someone else, let them take care of you. Don't dip back in your ex's pocket because they can provide. What real man wants his woman getting money from another man anyway? If the boys were yours, what kind of man are you to let someone else raise and take care of them? And what kind of woman wants a man who claims one but denies the other children when its convenient? They got what they deserved. I hope he spared the kids. Michelle was foul and I don't feel sorry for her either. The best friend tho? That's a thot move from the jump then to leave him after you've gotten satisfied financially and sexually, that's wrong. I hated that Ramon died he was the most real of them all.

Although my bitter baby daddy hasn't put me through any of these things. He's still bitter just the same. I loved every page of this book. I loved how Niki tied all the stories to each other. I just knew Laricus was going to go down another path. I had hopes for him til he cracked up. All the women got their revenge. I loved it. Can't wait for next book. Hurry Niki your fans are waiting

The pace was quick and chaotic at times. The grammatical errors sometimes had me guessing what the author meant to say. The first 2 stories didn't have "bitter" baby daddies but men who were emotionally abused. Now the last 2 men would fall under the angry, insecure, bitter baby daddy category. However, the author did a great job of displaying how emotionally and mentally damaging it can be to play with someone's emotions i.e. the first 2 stories. It ended with a "to be continued" ,but you have to hope there isn't a part 2. I don't think the story warrants one.
