Basic Sight Words Flash Cards, Ages 6 - 9

Customer Reviews

The issue is that these are advertised for grades 1-3 but that can't be right. The most difficult word in the entire pack is "please" and it's the only word with 6 letters. The majority are 2 and 3 letter words. I purchased the EduPress brand sight words on a ring for my young child and he learned them very quickly and wanted more. I figured I would try these but they are way too basic. I have an older child and when he was in 3rd grade, they gave him much more difficult words. Ditto for 1st and 2nd grade. These cards may be useful for a child who is just starting to read, don't let the "grades 1-3" in the description fool you. The price is ok, you could probably get similar cards at the dollar store or Target for at a better price. The quality of the cards is pretty good. Soft and bright card stock. Here is a list of some of the words: 1. a 2. after 3. all 4. am 5. an 6. an 7. and 8. any 9. are 10. at 11. ate 12. away 13. be 14. big Pretty good list of words. Helps my son create his own sentences. Good for first grade children or for children entering first grade.

Being a teacher, and mom of three, I've bought a couple different sets of cards in my days. These are my kids favorite cards for sight words. No distracting characters on them (believe me, we ALL want to get through them and when my kids don't feel like doing sight words, they will poke fun and make conversation about the pictures on the other cards). Also love that there are sentences on the back so they can see how same words spelled differently are used, and how to recognize the sight word in a sentence.

These are great for me to help my 1st grader figure out which words she needs to focus more on. I have her read the word, then come up w/ a sentence on her own using the word, then turn it over and have her read the word. We also LOVE the popcorn game and use it in the same manner, but those don't have a sentence to read, just a word for her to make up a sentence on her own.

Learning to read sight words is easy peasy, just wish the company would make more sets. Flashcards are awesome and portable. Box is sturdy.

These flash cards are a hit with my four year old daughter. The stack is pretty large so I decided to begin with 6 cards at time. She learns the sight words that are on the front and even some of the ones that are repeated in various sentences

These cards make summer school work fun for my 6yo.

Good flash cards. I will really recommend them.
