Customer Reviews

As a collector of opera scores, I was disappointed that the old Schirmer hardback scores seem to be no longer available. Nevertheless, my granddaughters were thrilled with this softcover version. I bought it for them along with a DVD of the opera, and we spent a happy evening immersed in the trials and tribulations of ETS Hoffman and his muse, thanks to Ruth Martin's delightful translation.

We're doing this opera this spring in my graduate program. We're doing it in the original french. This score has the original french and a singable english translation underneath. I usually white-out the singers english, as it is not an accurate word-for-word translation. But the score does its job just fine.

great product and seller AAA

Bought this for my bro, he said it's exactly what he needed. Perfect quality. Arrived on time. Will recommend to anyone.

Good score, but this is an edition that includes the English-altered version, so be careful about small altered note sequences because of language difference to the original.

AAA+++ Thanks so much !

good seller! nice score!
