Customer Reviews

Great for studying. Accurate information. My only complaint is that in a few spots, the author hilariously seems a bit spiteful about life. Maybe they need a hug? See quotes: "There are many real estate schools out there such as X, Y, and Z that, although they are good schools, also offer exam cram or exam preparation materials, but are extremely overpriced. Their materials.... provide a lot of extra "fluff" material that will not help you pass the exam and will waste your time." - Location 67 (Note: I took out the actual names of the schools they were bashing, because I am classy like that. ;P) "Please understand that as you go through the real estate questions we have prepared for you, you may come across a few that you have never seen before. Do not be alarmed. There are questions that are on the state exam, but were never given to you in the real estate class you took or in your class textbooks. This is why there is such a high failure rate for the real estate exam." - Location 83 "Frequently among the first few questions it seems that there are some of the most difficulty. Physiologically it will throw you off pace and the Department of Real Estate has coldly done this on purpose." - Location 20286
