Product reviewed: Don Quijote de la Mancha (Spanish Edition), Lavla Edizioni - streetlib version. I like three things about this edition: 1) The price. At $2.99 it's a good deal if you're looking for the complete Quijote in electrons. 2) It's the complete version, including both books I & II plus the introductory material. 3) Display and navigation. Although the text is justified, words hyphenate as needed for an even display across the eBook screen.If you don't need footnotes and just want to read the original Spanish text, it would be hard to find a better edition of the Quijote in electrons. My only complaint against the book: the long paragraphs. This was the style back in the day of Cervantes when books were expensive and the reader expected every page to be filled with text. In our day, and particularly in an eBook, this type of paragraph is hard to follow. It wouldn't violate the original text to insert carriage returns to make reading the book a little easier.Device used: Kindle Paper White.

I bought this book for my middle school native and advanced Spanish speakers. This is one of my favorite books and it is definitely written at a middle school level. There are some words that are annotated, per chapter, and it helps students understand what they're reading. It also helps to teach the preterite vs. imperfect.

Este libro es un clÃ¡sico de la literatura. Cervantes crea un libro donde todo puede acontecer. Lo mÃ¡gico estÃ¡ presente en cada lÃnea del libro. La riqueza tanto en la imaginaciÃ³n y en los recursos literarios. En una palabra genial. No puedes vivir sin leerte lo.

Castellano: Obra maestra de la literatura en espaÃ±ol. Definidora de una Ã©poca, rompiÃ³ el paradigma del caballero invencible tan comÃºn en la literatura de la Ã©poca y puede definirse como una de las primeras obras donde se utiliza la comedia como recurso literario. Es una lectura obligada, al menos una vez en la vida debe usted ser testigo de ese mundo lejano pero interesante que fue la caballerÃa en el medioevo europeo plasmado bajo la perspectiva Ãºnica de Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra.English: Master piece of literature in Spanish. It defined an age. It broke the paradigms of the almighty Knight that was so usual in the literature contemporary to Cervantes. We may as well say this is the first example of comedy used as a literary resource. It is a mandatory reading, at least once in a lifetime must any of you witness the now far but always interesting world that was the Chivalry of Medieval Europe, exposed following the unique perspective of Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra.

Ok

Wonderful references and detail notes throughout the story! I used this for my Don Quijote class, which meant we read both parts (I & II). This was only "tomo 1," but regardless a rare and fantastic find. I will not be selling my copy for sure. Perfect for the literary geek nut (like myself), not so much for those looking for a simple story. Lots of hidden details Cervantinos, lots of complexity in "narrator vs. author vs. character vs. active reader." Wonderful piece :)
