available.

I love the Let's Go series. my parents used them when I was a child and I continue the tradition with my husband when we travel. Very helpful in ensuring you hit all the great spots!

I wanted to avoid buying two books for a short trip to Spain and Portugal, but this book was missing lots of the smaller towns and villages that are still quite touristy along the south coast of Spain and elsewhere. It was good for the basics.

I'm a senior but this is a very good, down and dirty guide. Why mess around with the milk toast guides that are floating around out there?

great resource but have not used it yet

This was a great addition to our recent trip to Spain and Portugal. There were some very helpful components such as hours and prices for major attractions. We also appreciated the info regarding transportation. We tried to go to one of the restaurants listed but it appeared to have gone out of business. We would recommend this book to compliment other research and travel guides/websites.

Needs updating.

My daughter loves it
